

EMBEZZLING EPIDEMIC

Twelve Officers Dismissed Within Two Months—Sons of Distinguished Men Resign from Army for "Good of the Service."

Washington, June 29—An epidemic of wrong-doing seems to be spreading among the young commissioned officers of the United States army. During the past two months 12 young officers have been either dismissed from the service or forced to resign.

Secretary Root is seriously concerned and says the young men must be brought to realize the seriousness of their occupation and the grave consequences attendant upon the least neglect of duty upon the part of a commissioned officer.

In the twelve cases in which officers have been forced out of the army, the offenses were more serious than neglect of duty, however. In the majority of these misapplication of company funds, breach of faith, swindled creditors, duplicated pay accounts, etc., have played a prominent part.

It is stated at the department that the cases of fully twelve more officers are now hanging in the air, and that these even are now in danger of reprimands and dismissals. The offenses range all the way from embezzlement of army funds down to persistent neglect of duty. Most of the officers are youngsters of the grade of first and second lieutenants.

The older officers are trying to account for the outbreak of scandalous conduct on the ground that the offenders are men who received appointments from civil service life and had never been through the military academy, adding that this is what might be expected from taking into service "scruff from the volunteers."

This story is hotly resented by officers who owe their present commissions to good work done in the uniforms of volunteers, and on looking over the records of men who have been dropped of late they have been able to show that the list of military criminals contains the names of more than one graduate from West Point.

A former army cadet who graduated with honors is about to be prosecuted in the civil courts of Illinois as an absconder, having already lost his shoulder straps for duplicating his pay accounts.

Another West Pointer who appropriated $400 of post exchange money was recently tried and dismissed from the army. In addition he will probably be sent to the penitentiary for offenses against the civil laws.

A former volunteer got into fast company after securing a commission in the regular establishment, piled up debts of over $5000 and then disappeared. Neither the military nor the civil authorities have been able to locate him and he has been dropped from the rolls of the army.

The sons of several distinguished public men were permitted to resign a few weeks ago "for the good of the service," as a result of trouble in their pay accounts.

Both of them duplicated their pay accounts, and despite desperate efforts that were made by their fathers and influential friends to permit them to resign in the usual way, Secretary Root insisted on putting in the clause "for the good of the service," which was equivalent to a forced resignation.

One of the commonest troubles which befall young officers is getting into debt. For some reason they seem to find it impossible to live within their income. This is particularly true of officers on duty at Manila, where, from all accounts, they lead a gay life.

QUARREL

In Hamilton Results in Tragedy—A Saloonkeeper Kills His Brother, John Geisler.

Hamilton, O., June 29—John Geisler, a carpenter employed by the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad company, was shot and killed by his brother Charles, in the latter's saloon in West Hamilton Sunday.

John Geisler and his wife had gone to the saloon and the brothers quarrelled and fought. Charles ordered John to leave on pain of death, and going upstairs procured a 44 calibre Colt revolver.

They met in the hallway and Charles fired. John Geisler was removed to Mercy hospital and died in five hours. The murder was held for examination Wednesday, without bail.

This is the fourth murder here since February. The killing occurred in the presence of the victim's wife.

WALL

Of Water Lifted the Ground

Leaving the Farms Rocky Shoals

MANY BARN AND FENCES WERE WASHED AWAY.

Tracks on the Pittsburg Division of the Baltimore & Ohio Railway Covered Several Feet.

Wheeling, W. Va., June 29—A wall of water hit Wheeling creek valley and Peters run Sunday night, tearing out barns and fences and literally lifting the ground from farms leaving them a rocky shoal. The rain was a veritable cloudburst, and covered a distance of ten miles square, with absolute desolation. Houses were flooded but no one was drowned. The Pittsburg division of the B. & O. railway was tied up until this morning, the tracks being covered with debris to a depth of several feet.

MURDERER'S SUICIDE.

Hot Springs, Ark., June 29—Jim Dougherty, the condemned murderer, who Saturday morning disemboweled Roger Williams, a fellow prisoner, committed suicide while the jail was surrounded by a mob of over 500 persons bent upon lynching him. Dougherty took the steel ends of his shoe strings, flattened them out and made a two inch incision on each side of the throat. The mob was allowed to view the remains and quietly dispersed. Williams' body will be shipped to Louisville for burial today.

DIAMOND PIN

Found Fastened to Front of Engine Cab. A Strange Incident Connected With Tragedy.

New York, June 29—While an engine hostler was cleaning engine No. 1018 at the round house of the Harlem railroad at White Plains, he found the diamond breastpin worn by Mrs. Mary Agnes Hill Potter when she was killed Thursday evening.

The pin was tightly fastened to the front of the engine cab between the boiler and the window. The pin of the brooch was stuck into the cab nearly a half inch.

Up in the back of the pin, which is round, were to be seen the initials, "M. A. H." and the front was set with a diamond.

A railroad man said that it was the strangest incident he had ever heard of in connection with death on the rail that the pin should have gone with such force as to imbed itself in the cab of the engine, which since killing Mrs. Potter has run several hundred miles and made three hundred station stops.

A KNAPP JURY IS SECURED.

Hamilton, O., June 29—The trial of "Strangler" Knapp convened this morning with a special venire of 12 talesmen. Four were excused and at 11:15 a satisfactory jury was secured. The state exhausted its last peremptory challenge and then the jury was sworn. The opening statements were made this afternoon. The battle for Knapp's life will have for its pivot a kick by a pony when he was a boy of 8. The defense will lay stress on this kick, claiming that since then Knapp has been insane but not continuously.

Lawyers Darby and Thomas hope to save his life but no one believes that they hope to acquit him. They will attack his confession on several grounds. The defense is pleased with the jury. There is a scarcity of farmers on the jury because Judge Belden excused them, owing to the busy season. The prisoner is cool and unconcerned, but interested in the proceedings.

RIDDLE PLANT

Destroyed by Fire at Ravenna Sunday, Entailing a Loss of a Quarter of a Million Dollars.

Ravenna, O., June 29—Fire almost completely destroyed the great plant of the Riddle Coach and Hearse company here Sunday causing a loss of $250,000. There is only $18,000 insurance.

The fire was the largest in the history of this town and the flames were confined to the one block only by the hardest fighting.

The White hospital is only a few doors away, and a panic was created among the patients.

The Riddle company manufactures funeral cars, coaches and carriages. One hundred and fifty vehicles were in course of construction and all were consumed.

Several firemen were badly burned about the hands and head and some painfully injured.

Riddle Block, No. 4, occupied by a dry goods firm, several families and in which several valuable turnouts were stored, were nearly totally destroyed.

One hundred and fifty skilled men were thrown out of work.

Other builders and contractors who have their work under way, agreed at a mass meeting to stop their work in order that the men thus employed can start at once to rebuild the Riddle factory.

New Offices Opened.

Oyster Bay, N. J., June 29—The new executive offices were opened for business by Secretary Loeb at 8:30 o'clock this morning. Secretary and Assistant Secretary Barnes drove down from their lodgings in Thompson cottage in the midst of a driving rain storm. Mr. Roosevelt stayed home and had his secretaries bring him the mail. The President will receive no visitors this summer except by appointment and then only on the most pressing business.

BOYS' CAMP

Splendid Outing of Brigade Under the Command of Rev. Mr. Schindler Begins Thursday.

G Company of the Fourth regiment, Boys' Brigade, will go into camp at Buckeye Lake next Thursday morning, July 2, leaving on the 8 o'clock interurban car. The camp will be pitched on the big spur, just east of the Wells hotel, thus securing the best possible natural drainage and avoiding the low marsh. The camp will be known as Camp Harrigan in honor of Superintendent Harrigan from whom the company has received many favors. It will be a military camp in every way a regular routine being observed. The boys will have daily drills and lectures helpful to good citizenship. The use of firearms will not be permitted except on the target range, under a competent instructor. The hospital corps is furnished with a complete emergency outfit and Dr. Knauss of the 4th O. N. G. will inspect the sanitary condition. Morning and evening prayer will be observed and on Sunday afternoon divine worship will be held. Commandant Schindler who has been identified with the Boys' Brigade movement for a number of years, will endeavor to give the boys splendid outing under the safest and most favorable environment.

Washington, June 29—It is expected that the grand jury this afternoon will return indictments containing three additional counts against A. W. Machen and Groff Brothers on charges of bribery.

SCORES KILLED

In Terrible Railway Accident in Spain--Whole Train Went Over a Bridge--River Was Red With Victims' Blood.

Madrid, June 29—(Bulletin)—Exact news of the catastrophe to the Bilbao train at the Nejerilla river in which over 200 persons were killed or injured, is still lacking. Many persons are still under the debris and until they are removed the full number of casualties will not be known.

The newspapers are today calling for the punishment of those responsible for the disaster. It is asserted that the company has known the bridge was in a shaky condition for twelve years past and have done nothing to avert such a catastrophe. The river ran red with the blood of mangled human beings.

Madrid June 29—Fourteen bodies and fifty injured persons have been extricated from the wreck of the Bilbao train which overturned at Nejerilla river Saturday night.

According to official information 30 persons were killed and 60 others were seriously injured. Many of the latter will die.

Of the 300 passengers on the train it is stated that only six escaped unhurt.

The train, which was composed of two engines and 16 coaches, was crossing the bridge when the couplings between the engines broke.

The second engine left the track and fell, followed by the entire train, into the bed of the river. Fortunately the water was low.

The nearest medical attendance was a mile and a half distant and those passengers who were least injured aided the others and did all possible until the arrival of relief trains bringing nurses, doctors and soldiers from Bilbao.

RELiance

And Constitution Meet Every Day This Week—Severe Tests are to be Made.

Newport, R. I., June 29—The cup yacht Reliance will meet the Constitution and Columbia off Brenton's reef lightship today in the first of a series of six races. There will be a race every day this week and the new sloop will be subjected to a severe test so that by next Sunday it will be certainly known whether the Constitution or the Reliance will have the honor of defending the cup. There is promise of good wind today.

At 12:10 this afternoon the warning gun was fired and five minutes later the starting gun boomed. Columbia crossed the line first at 12:15:32. Reliance 12:15:46; Constitution 12:16:15. At 12:43 the Constitution was flung about and remained in stays for nearly a minute before being sent in shore on starboard tack. It looked as if something had happened to one of her stays.

It is a race now between the Columbia and the Reliance with the Reliance leading and the wind 12 knots.

COL AMMON

Convicted of Receiving Stolen Goods, Was Sentenced to Serve in New York Prison Monday.

New York, June 29—Colonel Robert A. Ammon, who was recently convicted of receiving stolen goods in connection with the Franklin Syndicate, was today sentenced by Judge Newburger, in court of general sessions to serve not less than four years, and not more than four years and six months in Sing Sing prison. Attorney Palmer, in Ammon's behalf, made a motion for a new trial, which was promptly denied.

APPOINTMENTS.

Washington, June 29—Among the Consular appointments, arranged by the President before his departure on Saturday was that of Hon. Albion W. Tourgee of New York, Consul of the United States at Bordeaux, France. promoted to be Consul General of United States of Halifax N. S. Mr. Tourgee is a well known author and novelist.

A MIGHTY ARMY OF WORMS.

TACOMA. Washington, June 29—Mighty hosts of an army of worms in a solid column 150 yards wide and nearly three miles long, are marching through Walla Walla county. The origin of the worms which have never been seen here before, is not known. Growing crops and vegetation are being denuded. The worms are from one and a half to two inches long and are brown and fuzzy like caterpillars. The ranchers are alarmed for their garden truck and wheat.

ONE DEAD

Two Injured as a Result of a Kentucky Feud—Tom Tharp Was Arrested.

Jackson, Ky., June 29—As an indirect result of the Breathitt county feud Hiram Barnett lies dead and John and Joe Hacker are seriously wounded in Magoffin county, across the Breathitt county line.

The men met at the home of Miss Lella Burns. The young woman told Barnett that Hacker had related to her that he saw her uncle, Burns Fitzpatrick, the man who, along the jury that tried Jett and White, with a fine Winchester rifle, and some money, intimating that he had sold out to the Hargis faction. Hacker denied making the statement, and called Barnett into the hall. They engaged in a quarrel. Several other young men joined in the dispute. Finally a shot was fired and this was followed by some 10 others. Hiram Barnett was shot through the heart.

Joe and John Hacker were shot, the former in the abdomen and the latter in the left shoulder. The Hacker boys, it is believed, are fatally injured. The Hackers are nephews of one of the men who served on the jury with Fitzpatrick, and the fact that the jury was hung by Fitzpatrick led to much comment among his neighbors. The young woman was said to have been engaged to Hiram Barnett. Further trouble is feared.

For the first time in many months evening church services were held last night. Prior to this time the citizens were afraid to leave their homes after dark.

Tom Tharp was arrested by the provost guards after a two mile chase for shooting.

Joe Crawford and Ed Tharp accused of burning Ewen's hotel were released on bond and will return to work for James Hargis. Jack and Leland Howard and Jeff Tharp are their surates.

To See Mrs. Eddy.

Boston, June 29—Over five thousand, perhaps ten thousand Christian Scientists will today make a pilgrimage from Boston to Concord, N. H., to visit the well known author and novelist, Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy.

A FALL OF BLACK RAIN.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 29—Black rain fell in Barbour county Saturday, it is said. The water ran in streams so black that cattle refused to drink it. Horses and cattle in the fields appeared black after the storm. The black rain extended all over the county. The clouds were of inky blackness and black smoke seemed to rise from them. There is much speculation as to the cause.

"De world has been gwine ahead fill nuthin' kin amaze us any mo'. It won't be five y'ars longer befo' we become as familiar wid de occult as we am wid reform politics, an' dat assen-tion brings me to de subject of my lecture."

"I reckon dat mos' of yo' have heard mo' or less 'bout de matter of hypnotism, but yo' has been so busy rentin' post office
boxes an' wear-
in' dmin pins an' bettin' on race hosses dat yo' haven't looked into it werry
fur."

"Hypnotism is one pussion controllin' another
by lookin' into his eyes. Fur instance, Way-down Beebe cum
over to my cabin
last night to borrow $2. I felt it in my bones as soon as he knocked on de doah.
Brudder Beebe belongs to my church, but he's an absent minded man. He may borrow a dollar of yo' tonight an' fergit all about it fur a year or two. I don't say it to his detriment, as he was bo'n dat way. He had set around fur awhile, tryin' to git his courage up to de stickin' pint, an' he had just opened his mouth to ax fur dat $2 when I fix'd my eyes on his.
De effect was magical. He sot dar wid his mouth open an' his eyes hang-in' out, an' it was two minutes befo' he could say a word. Den, instead of axin' fur $2, he wanted to know if I would lend him a'spade."

"Dat's hypnotism, an' it's one of de mysterious forces developed down de last few years, but we am comin' to somethin' greater an' that's telepathy.
Yo'd better write de word down an'
keep sayin' it over an' over, so yo' kin git it off in de grocery an' at de wood yard."

"Telepathy am de act of talkin' wid another pussion at a distance. He may be only around de co'ner or he may be a thousand miles away. He may be up a tree or down in a coal mine. It am no new idea, but we as a people have bin so busy wid patent churns an' barbed wire fences dat we haven't had time to take it up an' develop it.
I begun to work at it about six weeks ago, an' my progress has bin all dat could be hoped fur. I don't want dis audience to go home tonight an' have nightmare an' dream of ghosts, but I do want to speak of a few facts."

"My first experiments war made on de old woman. Gwine around de co'- ner an' walkin' a block down de street, I'd tell her dat I wanted tripe fur dinner or codfish fur supper, an' lo, she'd prepare de said dishes. I could make her carry out ashes or bring in coal.
"I could not only communicate wid her, but could receive communicashuns. I was a mile away one day when she told me dat de flour bar'l was empty an' de last of de taters in de kettle. On another occasion I was comin' home at midnight wid a couple of chickens under my arm when she communicated to me de fact dat a policeman was hangin' around de gate to interview me. Again as I was goin' up an alley wid a basket on my arm to look fur coal she warn'd me dat de fust shied I should come to on my right had a man in a shotgun in it. I could cite yo' numerous other incidents, but dose I have menteshud will suffice."

"Havin' got at de key of telepathy, I purceeded to enlarge operashuns. Yo'
all remember Uncle Reube Jackson, who used to be a member of dis club,
but moved to New Jersey three years ago. Happenin' to think of him one night, I kept my mind on him fur

three or fo' minits an' den said in a whisper:
"Uncle Reube, yo' went away owin' me $2 an' I want it."

"Brudder Gardner, yo' am a pesky old liar," was de answer almost befo'
I could draw my breath.

"Two years ago Brudder Artichoke Johnson of dis club had de misfortune to find a gold watch in de middle of de road. He was arrested an' tried an' sent to Sing Sing fur seven years. I believe dey somehow made out dat dere was a drunken man attached to de other end of de watch chain. It struck me to communicate wid de unfortunate, an' arter fixin' my thoughts on him I said:
"Brudder Johnson, how am yo' feel-
in' jest now?"

"It was 10 o'clock at night, an' I reckon he was asleep, but not ober a minute had passed when he replied:
"None ob yo' dratted business."
"In de past two weeks I has made other experiments—experiments dat would have made de chills go up yo'r backs six months ago. I has sent messages to Chicago, St. Louis, New Orleans an' Boston. I has communicated with Siberia an' Africa. I has got my old woman so skeered of me dat she dasn't spend a cent fur a stick of gum widout tellin' me, an' my old dog sits up on end an' howls dismally every time I look him in de eye."

"I shall keep right on until telepathy is as plain to de human race as telephony, an' if I am de fust to solve it's mysteries it will be my pride an' yo'r satisfaction dat it was accomplished by a c'd'd man an' one of de downtrodden race."

"In conclusion, let me say dat I am now receivin' a telepathic message from de old woman axin' me to bring home oatmeal fur breakfast, an' in reply shall tell her dat de groceries am all shet up, an' she must stir up some flour an' have pancakes."

How He Declined.
Lady—Doctor, I wish you would call around to see my husband some evening when he is at home. Do not let him know that I asked you because he declares he is not sick, but I know he has consumption or something. He's going into a decline.
Doctor—I am astonished, but I will call. What are his symptoms?
Lady—He hasn't any except weaktires him.—West Union Record.

There is a story going the rounds of the papers about twin brothers, one of whom was demented and was ordered by the court to be committed to an asylum. The other brother accompanied him to the institution. Soon after the twin brothers had arrived at the asylum the sheriff received a telegram from the superintendent, saying: "Two men who look just alike here from your county, one for commitment. One is talking of building a railroad to the moon and the other says that the Republican party is opposed to trusts. Which is the crazy man?"

Washington dispatches say that President Roosevelt has taken full control of the postoffice investigation. This, if a fact, justifies an urgent demand that the search for the rascals should be extended to the top, and not continue, as it is now, confined to the bottom.

Zimmerman a Candidate.

(Sandusky Star.)

The announcement in the telegraphic dispatches of Friday, that Hon. John L. Zimmerman of Springfield, had definitely decided to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, was received with pleasure by his friends in this section of the state—and there are a great many of them. The announcement will have the effect of stirring these friends up to active efforts to make Mr. Zimmerman's candidacy successful. No citizen of Ohio is more deserving of such efforts, or of the high honor Mr. Zimmerman's friends would bestow. He is eminently qualified to fill the high office to which he aspires, and his friends believe he would poll more votes in this Republican state than any other man who might be named. The friends of other candidates of course, take a different view of this last proposition, and will undoubtedly contest for their favorites. But there is no reason why, if successful, Mr. Zimmerman should not have the united support of the Democracy of the state, and draw a good many Republican votes from the boss-created candidate of that party.

That there will be a considerable number of candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor, seems certain, but it is equally certain that the contest among them will be carried on in such a manner that when the nomination is made, all hands will be ready to work for the election of the winner.

(Hamilton Sun)

The Zimmerman gubernatorial boom appears to be crowding everything else out of the way, whether Col. Zimmerman wants it or no. The Democrats of Ohio are coming to a realization of the fact that the nomination of a man like Mr. Zimmerman at a time like this is the best possible way to redeem Ohio from the clutches of the Republicans. If John L. Zimmerman of Springfield cannot be elected Governor this year then there isn't a Democrat in Ohio who can.

DEMOCRAT

Of Licking County Voices the Sentiment of Democratic Voters Generally in This Article.

The Millersburg, Ohio, Farmer in the current number, publishes the following from Miller Henry of this city of Grover Cleveland and Wm. J. Bryan to the Democratic party:

It occurs to my mind that the present position of certain Democratic leaders is one of disorganization. Grover Cleveland, twice nominated and twice elected, is a party to the disgraceful drama of discord and disorganization. W. J. Bryan, twice nominated and twice defeated, is another party to the humiliating and provoking spectacle to which the Democratic party is invited. Those factions are busy and have been for some time past trying to disrupt the party and lead astray men who desire its success not alone as a party success, but rather to carry out those great fundamental principles, which the Republican party has purposefully refused to do.

When we consider the differences between those gentlemen and viewing the platform on which they pledged their support before the American people, it might be said truthfully that both platforms declared for bi-metalism; perhaps the one on which Mr. Bryan was defeated was a little stronger than the preceding one on which Mr. Cleveland was elected, but this is not what created the trouble in the party. The bond issue by Mr. Cleveland was the prime cause for complaint in the party and then it was that Democrats began to become restless and alarmed at the spectacle of issuing bonds when the masses thought that it was unnecessary. This was where the party lost faith in Mr. Cleveland. This statement is not made for the purpose of bringing further discord in the party or to injure Mr. Cleveland. It is a matter of history and cannot be refuted. Grover Cleveland is one of the greatest men this country has produced. He is a philosopher and statesman, but he is human and consequently liable to make mistakes as other men do.

To question the ability and integrity of Mr. Bryan would be as unsuccessful as trying to reverse the order of nature. A Christian, an orator, a statesman and patriotic American citizen, he and Mr. Cleveland will in after time be regarded as men useful alike to the Democratic party and the best interests of our common country. Then let us as men of a common interest forget the past and return to our former associations embodying the great general principles of true patriotism, true statesmanship and a faithful construction of constitutional obligations, and with a united Democratic party, success is assured.

Let us renew our attachment to those emblems of good government which the Democratic party has always advocated, and if we go down in defeat we will have the assurance that we have discharged our duty to the best interest of mankind.

MILLER HENRY.

NERVOUS-HEADACHE BREEDS INSANITY.

Many a person's whole pleasure in life is ruined by the fear of nervous headaches. Any little excitement, no matter what, business or social, brings them on. The feet and hands grow cold, the head is hot, the eyes stiff, the temples throb, and only in the quiet of a darkened room is relief obtained. This condition must be checked or it means complete mental ruin. To those people Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills come as a blessing. They do not stop, they cure the headaches. They do not blanket, they build up. They put the nervous system in a strong, vigorous sturdy condition—a condition that gives one resistive power and enables them to again enjoy life's pleasures.

Mrs. B. Bollwine of the Travelers Hotel, Corner Second and Canal Sts., Newark, Ohio, says:—

"Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are what they claim to be, a good nerve tonic. I was induced to use them as a cure for nervousness, restlessness, nervous sick headaches and depression. The box I got at Bricker's City Drug Store worked well in each instance and cured the trouble. I feel well and right again and can recommend them highly as thoroughly reliable." 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. "Beer" Evening

Kiel, June 23—Tonight Kaiser William, Admiral Cotton, Ambassador Tower and others will attend "Beer Evening" on the yacht club grounds. Emperor and his guests will sit at several small tables and will pass the time in free and easy social intercourse. The general public will occupy the neighboring tables. Only beer will be served. After the reception today four thousand German blue-jackets had tea aboard the Kearsarge. Great preparations were made to cope with their appetites.

SPURGEON

THE SUBJECT OF ADDRESS BY THE REV. B. F. PATT.

Last of a Series of Splendid Talks Given on Sunday Afternoons at the Y. M. C. A.

The series of addresses on "Great Religious Leaders of the Past" at the Sunday afternoon meetings at the Y. M. C. A. were brought to a fitting close yesterday in an able address on Chas. Haddon Spurgeon, by Rev. B. F. Patt. He spoke of Spurgeon's sturdy parentage, his rugged training at home in religious things, his conversion at the age of 15, and the beginning of his marvelous ministry at the early age of 16. At 20 he accepted the pastorate of the church in London which afterward became the famous Metropolitan Tabernacle, and here he did his great life work.

In concluding his address Mr. Patt named what he considered the elements of Spurgeon's greatness.

1. The presence with him through all his life with marvelous power, what he himself called "The Spirit of Grace." All his life long he spoke and acted under the immediate guidance and aid of this spirit received at the time of his conversion.

2. His unflinching faith in the power of prayer. The numerous great movements which he organized and carried on in London were supported almost wholly by gifts which came in direct answer to his prayer.

3. His unflinching faith in the power of prayer. The numerous great movements which he organized and carried on in London were supported almost wholly by gifts which came in direct answer to his prayer.

4. His great ability as an organizer, setting to work in a multiplicity of ways the members of his immense congregation.

5. His singleness of purpose and his steadfastness in it, despite all allurements and tempting offers to lecture and to speak for large sums of money. He never once turned aside from his great all absorbing purpose to preach the gospel of Christ and to do the will of God.

The choir of the Baptist church rendered to the delight of all present the anthem, "Arise, Shine," by Himmel.

Beginning next Sunday afternoon the meeting will be held in the parlors and will be conducted as a Conversational Class with prominent church and Sunday school workers as leaders from Sunday to Sunday. Fuller announcements will appear in Saturday's paper.

GREAT FURNACE

GREAT FURNACE.
MAN'S STOMACH LIKE ONE.

So Says Mr. F. D. Hall, Our Well Known Druggist.

"There is no need of your going about with that woe-l gone expression on your face," said a member of the drug house of F. D. Hall to a reporter who called on him yesterday. "You are not going to die, man," said the druggist, when our correspondent had related his woes and told how late hours, hasty lunches, changes in the weather, and other conditions had brought him to the state where life had lost all happiness and he was feeling miserable all over.

"I can fix you so that you will feel better in twenty minutes," said the druggist.

"Your whole trouble is your stomach. You abuse it—neglect it—forget it—and pay no more attention to it than though it did not exist, until in indignation and revolt it reminds you of itself. Don't you know that this stomach of yours is the most important organ in your body? It is like the furnace that drives the palatial steamship across the ocean. It is the center of vitality of your entire system. Into it is taken the fuel that maintains your life—that is, the food you eat; when it works properly this food is converted into bone and tissue and pure, new blood.

"You cannot run a furnace without paying some attention to it. If you neglect it, it will become filled with clinkers and foreign matter and will not only fail to heat properly but will eventually go out.

"It is the same with your stomach. You cannot abuse it, you must pay a little attention to it, you must help it digest the food you put into it and you must try and see that the right kind of food is employed. You would not throw granite paving stones in place of coal into a furnace, and yet I would guarantee that you even put almost as bad in your stomach.

"Now take my advice and try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. They will help your stomach digest the food which you eat. They will enable it to better obtain the nourishment from that food.

"I know what I am talking about," concluded the druggist, as he handed the newspaper man a package of the little tablets about which he had been talking. "Of course I have investigated the merits of this article, and as you know, I guarantee its action, promising to refund the price of the remedy to those who are not satisfied with the result it accomplishes.

"The best part of this offer is, however, that I don't feel very many people coming back for their money. They come back again, you may be sure, for another box of Rexall and most of them talk just as strongly in its favor as I do myself. The price being 25c. places these tablets within reach of all. Every box sold means another Rexall friend."

When to Write.

In his recent brochure on Zola, M. Faguet of the Academie Francaise says: "Zola began to write too soon. Every man who writes before he is thirty and who does not devote the golden age of his life, from the twentieth year to the thirtieth, to reading, observing and thinking, without writing a line, runs the risk of having no brain and of being but a journeyman author. There are some exceptions, but they are rare."

Mackenzie, Watchmaker, 28 West Church street.

He Was Just a Little Bit Cautious

The girl who had fallen into the water screamed frantically for help. "Save me! Save me!" she cried. The man on the bank hesitated. "I'm a married man," he said, "and I have seven children. I want that distinctly understood."

"Yes, yes; but save me!" cried the girl.

"I can't marry you if I do," urged the man.

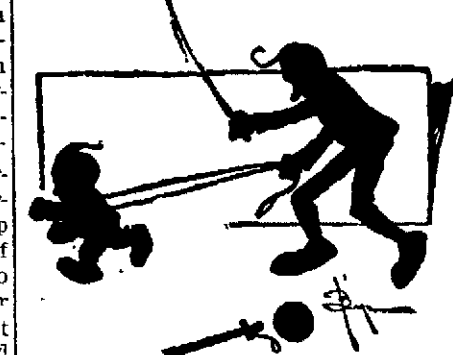

"No, no; only save me."

"If any girl falls into my arms and calls me her preserver there's going to be a whole lot of trouble."

"Yes, yes; but save me!" cried the girl.

"Well, I'll tackle the job," he said as he threw aside his coat. "You see, I was caught on one of these preserves deals once, and that's how I come to be married, so I'm disposed to be just a little bit cautious."—Brooklyn Eagle.

A Pleasant Dream.

"I've been thinking of taking a couple of months off this summer"—began the man at the desk. "A couple of months off?" repeated the man near the door. "Why, I didn't know you ever got but a couple of weeks."

"I don't, but I can think about taking two months, can't I?"

As to Poetry.

A new story is going the rounds about Mark Twain and a young poet. "How long does it take to get fame from a poem?" asked the poet. "The sage thought and in a few minutes said:

Secure.

Immediate Relief Follows the Use of

OPAAC

IT CURES A COLD IN 24 HOURS

Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, LaGrippe, Neuralgia, Headache, together with All Febrile Conditions of the System Yield to OPAAC like Magic: It is a Sure Cure for

COLDS and LAGRIPPE

Does Not Cause Ringing in the Head

OPAAC has proved an invaluable addition to the world's Pharmacopeia of Scientific medicines that CURE. Unlike the old fashioned Quinine with its offensive, nauseating after effects, OPAAC allays and soothes the fevered organs, effecting a speedy and lasting cure, and at the same time tones up the whole system. OPAAC is composed of the active curative principals of various roots and plants, and was not discovered by accident, but is the result of much studious scientific investigation. All dangerous ingredients are carefully eliminated, and only those used whose action upon the system have proved highly curative without producing bad after effects. OPAAC is warranted to break up—IN A FEW HOURS—any feverish symptom not neglected too long, and will cure chronic cases within a reasonable period. It reduces the fevered condition, heals the inflamed surfaces, restores natural secretions and induces healthy action of the organs of respiration. OPAAC is finding favor everywhere. Physicians are constantly prescribing and recommending it to their patients. Its marked popularity is based on RESULTS—PRACTICAL RESULTS. People try it, find relief and cure, and inform their friends; every day it becomes more widely known. With such a remedy obtainable, there is no excuse for allowing a cold to become chronic or dangerous in character. Buy a box of OPAAC and break it up at once. OPAAC is easy and pleasant to take; is put up in the form of a small tablet and chocolate coated, rendering it acceptable to the most sensitive taste.

The Bible and Its Contents.

There are no less than 3,566,480 letters in the Bible, 773,697 words, 31,193 verses and 1,189 chapters.

The number of verses in the Bible commencing with A are 12,638; B, 2,207; C, 183; D, 17; E, 207; F, 1,797; G, 200; H, 1,164; I, 1,440; J, 1,588; K, 63; L, 411; M, 437; N, 961; O, 592; P, 149; Q, 4; R, 127; S, 1,088; T, 5,280; U, 83; V, 37; W, 1,396; X, none; Y, 250; Z, 17. To read the Bible through in a year means reading three chapters every weekday and five chapters each Sunday.

All the letters of the alphabet are contained in the twenty-first verse of the seventh chapter of Ezra.

The Bible was not divided into chapters, as it is now, until the thirteenth century. Early Hebrew Bibles were marked into sections and verses by means of accents, which served as marks to be observed in the eastern manner of reading. The work of dividing the Bible into chapters has been attributed by some to Stephen Langton. The division into verses was made by a printer of the name of Robert Stephens in 1548 and was adopted throughout all editions.

The American Language.

"It used to be considered a witicism to ask a man whether he spoke United States," said an English university man at the Lawyers' club the other day, "but there is in fact an American language, distinctive from the king's English not only in idioms and in the use of particular words, but in the clipping of words to save time and breath. On this side of the Atlantic one scarcely ever hears 'I have' and 'you are.' You hurrying Americans say 'I've' and 'you're.' You shorten up 'cannot' into 'can't' and your purest speakers use 'don't' and 'won't' and it is almost a universal habit among Americans to clip the 'g' off words ending in 'ing.' Even your professors of English fail to sound the 'e' in 'righteous' and 'courteous' and shorten 'knowledge' into 'knowledge.' I might recite scores of words that are practically shortened by a syllable in usage, and as usage makes language you Americans are gradually constructing a speech that is quite distinct from that form of English which Oxford and Cambridge are preserving with such care."—New York Times.

DAMAGE BY LIGHTNING.

Brother of Two Newark Ladies Killed--Horses Killed in Shafts--Fine Colt and Two Cows Dead--Lightning Pranks in Newark.

Reports reaching the Advocate from various parts of the county show that Sunday evening's thunder storm was very severe.

Lightning did some damage in Newark and killed several animals in different parts of the county.

A horse being driven near Chatham was killed in the shafts; Capt. Warden had a valuable colt killed and two men report the loss of cows.

Mr. George Lingafelter, who resides near Highwater, this county, in company with two other men, had a narrow escape from death Sunday evening. The men were on their way to Newark when they were overtaken by the storm near Chatham, and were hurrying to shelter when a bolt of lightning descended immediately in front of them, striking the horse, which fell dead in the shafts. Fortunately the men escaped unhurt, beyond receiving a severe shock.

During the storm Sunday afternoon lightning went into the Casino at Idlewild park on a wire which had become crossed with another. A fire seemed imminent, but Chief Bausch, who was in the grand stand watching the ball game, ran to the scene and with a dry stick, pushed the wire that was giving trouble out of the road and a fire was averted.

Lightning also burned out the telephone at the residence of Wm. Hohl on North Fourth street, and struck a large tree in front of the residence of Thomas M. Jones in East Newark, badly shattering it.

A fine milch cow belonging to Mr. Edward Pond, near Wilkin's Corners, was killed by lightning on Sunday evening.

LIGHTNING

Struck Thos. Lippincott's House Sunday Night But No Serious Damage Was Done.

During the electrical storm of Sunday evening lightning struck the residence of Mr. Thomas Lippincott, 20 Jefferson street, tearing off a number of boards from the gable end of the house and knocking off many slate from the roof. The lightning ran down the chimney and broke out into the sitting room, where Mr. Lippincott was sleeping on a sofa, and Mrs. Lippincott was dosing in a chair. Mrs. Lippincott says that she was suddenly awakened by a terrific peal of thunder and a vivid flash of lightning the light of which completely filled the room. She says that it appeared as though a big ball of fire was darting around the room. It struck the telephone, burning the wires, and then escaped from the room. Mr. Lippincott thinks that two of his horses which were in the barn were shocked by the lightning as they have appeared to be in a dazed condition ever since.

LIGHTNING

KILLED THE BROTHER OF TWO NEWARK WOMEN.

Struck a Church at New Concord on Sunday Night and Injured Several People Badly.

A. H. Alexander who was killed by lightning at New Concord Sunday night has two sisters who live in Newark Mrs. Ida M. Mitchell wife of Chas. B. Mitchell the well known B. & O. engineer who lives on Andover street, and Miss Mary Alexander, who has been employed as a laundress for two years past in the Licking County Children's Home.

Both women have gone to attend the funeral.

The following from Zanesville tells of the death of Mr. Alexander and the injury of others:

Zanesville, O., June 23—A frightful electrical storm passed over Zanesville and Muskingum county Sunday evening and wrought havoc in many places.

At New Concord children's day services were in progress at the Presbyterian church, when the storm came. The chorus of children was just singing the closing song when a bolt of lightning struck the church, entered the auditorium and scattered pandemonium throughout the edifice.

A. H. Alexander, a brother of former Sheriff James B. Alexander of this city, was instantly killed. He occupied a seat near the organ and his body which was hurled half way across the room, was burned its full length.

Occupying a seat immediately in front of Mr. Alexander was Clovis Allison, who was rendered insensible. His shoes were torn from his feet, his coat sleeve ripped as if with human fingers, and one of his trousers' legs was torn almost to shreds. He revived in about half an hour.

Miss Rose Faden, the organist, was knocked senseless and fell from the organ stool to the floor. She subsequently recovered consciousness and did not sustain any injuries other than a severe shock.

Miss Mary Alexander, a daughter of the man who was killed and who was sitting alongside her father, was also knocked senseless, but she, too, later recovered.

The church was considerably damaged. Many in the congregation became panic stricken and hysterical and rushed pell-mell out into the storm, screaming and wailing, apparently bereft of reason.

DORA'S HUSBAND KILLED.

Versailles, Ky., News has been received here that Riley Brock, aged 32 years, was killed by a train near Longview, Ill. Brock was the husband of Dora Clay, former child-wife of General Cassius Clay. He and Mrs. Brock left here a few weeks ago.

FINE COLT

Belonging to Capt. F. G. Warden Killed by Lightning—Mr. Emery Lost a Cow.

During the storm on Sunday evening lightning struck and killed a fine colt belonging to Captain F. G. Warden. The animal was valued at $200. A Jersey cow belonging to Wash Emery of Sixteenth street, was also killed.

REMAINS

Of C. L. Souslin Who Was Killed in Columbus Brought to Licking County for Burial.

The remains of Clement L. Souslin, who died at a hospital in Columbus on Thursday night from the effects of a kick received from a horse, arrived here on Saturday evening and the body was taken to the undertaking establishment of Bowers & Bradley. The funeral services were held at Rocky Fork church on Sunday at 11 o'clock, and were largely attended. Interment was made in the Souslin cemetery.

Mr. Alonzo Souslin, a brother of the deceased, who resides in Dayton, was unable to be present owing to the fact that the telegram notifying him of the death of his brother, was not delivered to him until 36 hours after it had been sent. The members of the family are very thankful to their friends for their sympathy and many acts of kindness shown.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or the effects of leaving use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing men- tion reading this generous offer in this paper.

THE RAILWAYS IDLEWILDE THIS WEEK

B. & O. TO SHUT OUT WABASH AT WHEELING.

Postal Secures Right to String Wires Along Union Pacific—Local Railway Items.

Wheeling, W. Va., June 29—The B. & O. railroad has purchased property of the Flaccus heirs in the central portion of the city for $100,000, together with other property belonging to the Fleming estate, and will, in the course of a few months, erect a union depot in what is known as Hemfield yards, practically in the business portion of the city. The cost will be $1,000,000. The road will enter the city from the east by means of an elevated track and will perhaps tunnel the immense hill in the rear, giving access to the city by another route.

Coming into the new depot will be the Pennsylvania lines from the east, the C. L. & W., the Wheeling & Lake Erie, the Ohio river road, a branch of the B. & O., the B. Z. & C., and the new road connecting Wheeling with the coke fields of Pennsylvania.

It is evident that the intention of the B. & O. is absolutely to control the steel and iron trade of this vicinity, thus shutting out the Wabash; also to control the coal fields of Northern West Virginia.

It is also proposed to bridge the Ohio river here at two points, and perhaps the main line, which will cross the river at Bellaire, will be changed so as to pass direct through the city by way of the new bridge, connecting on the Ohio side at Bellaire.

Postal and the U. P.

Omaha, June 29—Arrangements have been completed between the Postal Telegraph Company and the Union Pacific railway by which the telegraph company is given permission to construct a telegraph line along the right of way of the Union Pacific between Omaha and Ogden. In addition the contract provides that the postal company may construct a line along the same right of way from Cheyenne to Denver and from Ogden to Butte, Mont., along the right of way of the Oregon Short Line railroad. Officers of the postal company said that work on the construction of the lines would begin at once and would be pushed with the greatest speed.

Engine Jumped Track.

B. & O. engine 579, on train 50, jumped the track at the union switches, at the west end of the bridge over the Licking river. A serious accident was averted on account of the slow speed of the train which was approaching the depot. The engine was considerably damaged and necessitated taking another engine from Newark.

Important Meeting.

The officers and members of Crisswell Division 41, G. I. A. to the B. of L. E., are urgently requested to meet at a special meeting on the evening of July 1 as there is business of importance to come before the division which concerns every member.

Railway Notes.

Ed Young of the C. O. division, after having been off for some days, has been marked up for service.

Brakeman E. E. Hawkins of the C. O. division is unable to work on account of sickness.

Conductor F. J. Barnes of the C. O. division is off on a short leave of absence.

Brakeman Carlisle has been marked up for service on the L. E. division, after having been off for a few days.

B. & O. engine 857 on train 105 struck some stock on the Midland division on Sunday knocking the pilot off the engine.

Brakeman E. E. Taylor of the C. & N. division is off on a leave of absence for a few days.

Engine 1152 arrived from Chicago division on Sunday with her crew, which was sent for engine 1454. These engines are being replaced by the Atlantic types, and the 1400 class will be transferred to the B. & O. S. W.

Brakeman Bridgeland of the L. E. division is laying off for a few trips.

Brakeman McMullen of the L. E. division after having been off for a few trips, has been marked up for service.

Brakeman McKee of the C. O. division is laying off for a few trips.

Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling engine 907 was turned out of the shop on Saturday after having been completely overhauled. Engineer Glancy will take particular pride in having the engine in perfect condition for service, as it was his old love when he was in service on the C. L. & W.

In spite of the prospect of rain yesterday the usual crowds filled Idlewild park, over 1000 attending the afternoon ball game. The Casino presented its program to about another thousand. This week's bill includes Donarue and Nichols in a very clever acrobatic comedy skit; O. A. Duncan, America's foremost ventriloquist; Chas. Heclow has greatly improved since last here and he tells a few stories and dances well; Vernon and Vernon do a combination ring and bar act and Rose and Brayton sing a few selections from operas in costume. It's a good bill.

Opal Mines an Excellent Investment.

As I understand a great many of our stockholders and friends are anxious to know my opinion of the Opal Gold Mines since I returned. I will say the mines are all they have claimed for them and more. The upper tunnel is in 190 feet, the lower one is in 160 feet. There are five men working in the tunnels and two laying track for the ore car (which is since completed and running). The upper tunnel is all in ore of a high grade, the lower tunnel is being driven in on a four foot vein of ore which I am told will average $35.00 per ton. I was somewhat disappointed at not being able to install a concentrator at present, but our Superintendent, Mr. Blaine our Foreman Mr. McCarty, and all of the old experienced miners I talked with advised strongly against it, until we had cut the main ledge which will be in about 60 days, and which will determine the permanent character of our ore. Our ore is getting richer with depth, but is changing fast in character, from a concentrating to a cyaniding ore. Acting under instructions from the manager Mr. Peay, the Superintendent has put a night force on and will continue a double shift until the main ledge is cut. I came away sooner than I intended and did not bring any ore with me of any consequence, but I picked up a piece from the upper tunnel and sent it to the State Chemist at Columbus to have it assayed.

The following is his report: I. H. Robb, Dear Sir: The sample of gold ore submitted for examination, contains Gold, 3.66 oz. per ton (2000) lbs. Value $20.67 per oz., $75.65. Yours respectfully, O. S. MARCKWORTH, B. S., Manager State Chemist, Columbus, O.

In accordance with the agreement signed by the Boss Barbers all shops will close on July 4th, Saturday at 12 o'clock noon, and will be kept open on Friday evening, July 3d, until 11 o'clock. 6-16-dtf

GOOD WORK

OF MISS CLARA ORTON, FORMER NEWARK TEACHER

Who is Now Interesting New York People in Mission Work of Columbus, O.

The following dispatch from Binghamton, N. Y., will be read with interest by the Newark friends of Clara Orton, who about ten years ago, was teacher of Latin and German in the High school of this city:

Binghamton, N. Y., June 29—Miss Clara Orton, of Columbus, O., has made a big hit in this section where she has been presenting the claims of the Columbus Mission, patterned after the "Florence Crittenden Mission," as a refuge for fallen women.

Miss Orton who was formerly a teacher in the Columbus High school has been devoting her time to the work of the Columbus Mission and has interested a number of wealthy residents who have been attracted by the practical training afforded the unfortunate in Columbus, which enables them to earn an independent livelihood.

A number of large bequests have already been promised the institution.

ALWAYS TIRED NEVER RESTED

To be tired out from hard work or bodily exercise is natural and rest is the remedy, but there is an exhaustion without physical exertion and a tired, never-rested feeling—a weariness without work that is unnatural and shows some serious disorder is threatening the health. One of the chief causes of that "Always-tired, never-rested condition" is impure blood and bad circulation. Unless the body is nourished with rich, pure blood there is lack of nervous force, the muscles become weak, the digestion impaired, and general disorder occurs throughout the system. Debility, insomnia, nervousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, strength and energy, and the hundreds of little ailments we often have are due directly to a bad condition of the blood and circulation, and the quickest way to get rid of them is by purifying and building up the blood, and for this purpose no remedy equals S. S. S., which contains the best ingredients for cleansing the blood and toning up the system. It is a vegetable blood purifier and tonic combined, that enriches the blood, and through it the entire system is nourished and refreshing sleep comes to the tired, never-rested, body.

For over four years I suffered with general debility, causing a thorough breaking down of my system. My cousin, who had been benefited by S. S. S., told me about it. I tried it and it cured me. I heartily recommend S. S. S. to all who may feel the need of a thoroughly good blood tonic. Yours truly, MRS. JOSIE A. BRITTAINE, 44 W. Ninth St., Columbia, Tenn.

FIELD OF SPORT.

THREE STRAIGHT FIGURES

URBANA BALL TEAM WON FROM IDLEWILDE.

Heavy Rain Put Stop to Game Sunday in Ninth Inning.—Score Was Six to Five.

The Urbana baseball team made a clean sweep of the series with Idlewild, taking the games Saturday and Sunday, after interesting contests. On Saturday Walser pitched for Idlewild and did good work, five of the runs scored by the visitors coming after two were out in the sixth and seventh innings. Hanlon, however, pitched a four hit game and deserved to win, the team behind him giving him excellent support.

In Saturday's game Butch Flick again played a beautiful game in the field for Idlewild and got two of the four hits made off Hanlon. Art Francis played at short and although he made the only error scored against the home team, it was made on a very hard chance and he more than compensated for this by his brilliant work.

Whalen went in Sunday to attempt to stem the victorious tide of Urbana and although he had pitched a hard game Friday he nearly succeeded in downing the coming champions of Ohio. The game was the most interesting of the series and the large crowd in attendance was kept in a high state of excitement throughout the see saw contest.

The eighth inning had been played and the first half of the ninth begun, when a terrific downpour of rain put an end to further hostilities, with the score 6 to 5, in favor of the visitors. Snodgrass, Urbana's catcher, was feeling ill, and out of five times up only made three two baggers, and was robbed out of another by Hildebrand, whose fielding was a feature of the game.

The following are the scores of the two games:

Saturday's Game.
Urbana	0	0	0	1	3	2	0	0	—C	10
Idlewild	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	—2	4

Gun Club Shoot.

The Licking County Gun Club held the first shoot of the season at its club grounds Friday afternoon. In the medal shoot John Kiefer won out by a score of 24 out of a possible 25. Kiefer holds the record of last season with a score of 25 straight. The next shoot will be held on the 4th of July at the club grounds. Shoot commences at 1 o'clock sharp.

All Collegians Tuesday and Wednesday

This week at Idlewild park, there will be a strong bill of baseball, and good crowds should attend the games. Tuesday and Wednesday the All Collegians will play the Idlewild team, while on Saturday and Sunday the strong Unions of Columbus will be the attraction. All of these games should be well worth seeing. The All Collegians is one of the strongest teams ever gotten together in Ohio, each man being a star in his position and selected because of his ability to play the position assigned to him. Many of the players have been seen in Newark and Granville during the season, and are the cream of the college baseball talent of the state. The games will be called at 3:15 o'clock, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Show That the Home Team Was Outplayed at Every Point—Advice to Players.

It will be an interesting study to compare the work of the Urbana and Idlewild teams in the series just concluded. Urbana undoubtedly has the fastest and most evenly balanced team in Ohio today unless it be Zanesville, and many Zanesville people who saw the Champaign county diamond representatives in the series just closed are willing to wager that they would take any series from Fred Drumm's strong aggregation. The comparative figures are given below:

Club Batting.
AB	H	Bat'g Av.
Urbana	107	26	.243
Idlewild	95	23	.242
Club Fielding.
PO	A	E	Fldg. Av.
Urbana	78	30	6	.945
Idlewild	78	29	11	.906

Individual Scores.
AB	H	Av.
Hildebrand	11	3	.272
Miller	11	3	.272
Johnson	13	3	.230
Walser	10	2	.200
F. Scott	9	0	.000
C. Scott	4	0	.000
Whalen	8	4	.500
Shaw	11	1	.090
Francis	3	1	.333
Flick	8	3	.375
McKown	5	2	.400
Ferguson	6	1	.166

Snodgrass led the Urbana team with a fine average of .461 in three games. He made six hits for a total of 10 bases.

These figures show that the home teams pitchers did good work, but they also show that Urbana's twirlers were in good form. There are only two points difference in the teams' batting averages, but Urbana with .243 scored eighteen runs, while Newark with .241 could get only nine across the plate. Here is the fatal weakness of the home team. The hits count for nothing and when men are on bases, the man at the bat usually does some insane thing or strikes out. As an example:

Sunday, with a man on second and third and one out, Scott came to bat. He foolishly stepped in front of a pitched ball and was promptly and properly called out by Umpire Rafferty. Such a play was ridiculous. If a player can get hit in order to get to first at some stage of the game, it is good baseball if the batter can get away with it. But on the occasion in question Scott was not there to get to first. No one cared what became of him. He was there to bring in one or both of the runners. A hit would have scored both, a long fly would have scored one, but Scott attempted to do a clever stunt, but instead did nothing but a foolish and altogether indefensible piece of baseball idiocy.

Scott alone is not to blame. Miller on Sunday with three balls and no strikes allowed a strike to be called and then blazed away at one over his head, knocking a grounder to pitcher, ending all chances of scoring.

Shaw and Johnson both had chances to score runs and went up and struck out, not once but several times.

No one is to be blamed for a man striking out, but Scott's and Miller's plays were dumb, foolish and costly.

This is not intended as a "roast," as there are no more hardworking players on the team that Scott and Miller. They are gentlemen on and off the field, and will make good ball players if they will only think, and take advice.

New Players for Idlewild.

The lineup presented by the Idlewild team Tuesday will be different from what has been seen, and Manager Driscoll has greatly strengthened his team.

"Butch" Flick and Art Francis who played Saturday, had to go to Columbus to play with the Interurbans Sunday but will be back in the games this week. Tommy Francis the sensational infielder of Columbus and Doty Freck of the Terre Haute team have also been secured and will play their first game Tuesday. "Lefty" Snyder one of the best pitchers in Ohio will also be with the local team, and those who go to the games this week will see the fastest kind of work on the infield.

Between Doctors and Lawyers Next Saturday Worth Going Miles to See.

That a grim determination is stirring in the breasts of the doctors to take the scalps of the lawyers in the ball game on the Y. M. C. A. grounds next Saturday is very evident. The following prominent physicians and dentists have already made application for positions on the team and will meet regularly this week for practice: J. P. H. Stedem, S. D. McClure, G. W. Emery, Robt. E. McCullough, C. F. Legge, Harvey Emery, Carl Evans, B. P. Barnes, I. N. Palmer, W. G. Corne, W. E. Wiyarch, C. B. Keller, G. G. Keller, G. S. Farquhar.

It has just been discovered that there are several old league players among these. One thing is sure, that the lawyers will have to bring out their best men, as the doctors will show a line up by Saturday that will be hard to beat.

Ned Oliver Here.

Mr. Ned Oliver who this season attended Kenyon college and played second base on the varsity baseball team, will spend the summer in Newark, having secured a position with the Newark Telephone company. Mr. Oliver may play some baseball here during the season, but will not endanger his amateur standing by signing a contract with the Idlewild management. If he plays it will be entirely for his own love of the game, and as a pure amateur.

New Craze in Statuary.

The Duchess of Marlborough has started what the London Globe hints is likely to prove something more than a craze and what that journal thinks may lead to the establishment of a school of English culture, says the London correspondent of the Chicago Tribune. The idea is to have statues of oneself and one's relatives, particularly one's children, made for the drawing room. The Duchess of Marlborough has had a tiny statuette of herself executed in white marble. She is reclining upon a sofa, wearing a clinging dress of empire shape. She has also a statuette of her eldest boy, the Marquis of Blandford, carved in a lying posture. It is about three feet long.

C. W. MONTGOMERY

Pays Visit to the State Experiment Station Which is Located Near Wooster, Ohio.

Recently the writer, in company with F. H. Ballou of this place, paid a visit to the Ohio Experiment Station, located at Wooster, Ohio. It was a joint meeting of the Board of Agriculture, the State Agricultural College and Institute workers.

The station is located on some rolling upland just south of Wooster.

Though I have been a constant reader of the bulletins and literature sent out by the station I confess I was much surprised at the extent of the work carried on there. To give an idea one hundred varieties of what are grown on one-tenth acre plots, and so it is through the cereals, grasses and forage crops.

I could not begin to give a description of all the work carried out there, but true to my nature of asking the question, "what can I get out of this?" I name a few things I think may be of benefit to the farmer who reads the Advocate.

Three years ago an apple orchard was planted. Half was plowed and has since been cultivated every year, and will continue to be; half was planted in sod. The second half was again divided, part being dug around each year, the other being mulched about the trees for a space of four to six feet in diameter, each year with manure straw and grass cut in the orchard. The mulched part so far, is making the best showing. Many of the hills of Licking county cannot safely be cultivated on account of washing but if apple trees will do just as well in sod, and the land kept in sod, then it certainly would be profitable to plant many of our hills to apples.

And another matter was securing a good stand of clover. They have difficulty in securing good stands of this valuable plant on the station farm, and they have tried sowing lime, one thousand pounds per acre on the corn crop, check plots being left without the lime, and presents a great contrast, the limed plots giving a stand of clover, while the unlimed plots have scarcely any.

In the matter of using fertilizers, where acid phosphate is used they find that clover does not do as well as where bone meal or tankage is used.

A comparison of yard manure i.e. manure thrown out of the barn and left exposed to the elements for three or four months, with manure hauled direct from the stall to the field, showed great yields in favor of applying the stall manure. Also where land plaster, floats (untreated ground phosphate rock) had been sprinkled over the stall manure, much increase in the crop was made.

CAPTAIN RUNCIE

Attended Dedication of Fine New Citadel at Cleveland Sunday—Senator Hanna Spoke.

Captain Runcie of the Salvation Army in Newark, was in Cleveland Sunday attending the dedication of the fine new citadel.

Senator Hanna was chairman of the occasion and made an address. He spoke almost entirely of the work done by the army and praised it. He said that if he had time to preach he would help the Salvation Army with his voice.

Commander Booth-Tucker introduced Senator Hanna.

Colonel Myron T. Herrick spoke briefly in praise of the army's work.

Among other visitors of special prominence at the dedication was General S. B. M. Young of the United States army.

Judge Stevenson Burke and C. A. Graselli each gave $250 toward liquidating the indebtedness on the building.

MRS. FRANK LINK

After a Long Illness Died Sunday Morning at the Home of Her Mother, Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Rose Link, wife of Frank Link, the well known window trimmer at the Powers-Miller department store, died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Rose A. Smith, 128 South Fifth street, at 3 o'clock Sunday morning, after a long illness with consumption.

Mrs. Link about two months ago returned to Newark from Arizona, where she had spent several months in search of health, but the disease was too firmly rooted to be eradicated and she derived little benefit from her sojourn in that climate.

The deceased was a sister of Wm. A. Smith and Frank M. Smith, and besides her husband leaves one child.

The funeral will take place from the St. Francis de Sales church Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, interment being made in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

Of Miss Spencer Receives Attention and Favorable Comment of Columbus Dispatch Art Critic.

A few weeks ago the Columbus Dispatch published a photograph of Miss Belle Havens, taken by Miss Spencer, together with an extended sketch of Miss Havens, telling of her success in landscape painting. Yesterday's Dispatch reproduced a photograph of Miss Spencer taken by Clarence H. White, and the picture was accompanied by the following notice:

"Photography as a thoroughly enjoyable form of education along artistic lines has come to the fore in the last few years to a remarkable extent especially among those who are temperamental to a degree, and possessed of a truly artistic soul, that finds ample delight in this work.

"To these the art appeals, as nothing else could, and the lights and shadows on animate and inanimate things; the varying expressions of nature caught by the camera's watchful eye, are made a source of never ending joy.

"The failures that are part and parcel of the labors, are no doubt many, but the successes are all the more appreciated, and the true artist never minds these failures, for they are but forerunners of the delights brought by successful efforts.

"Columbus people are familiar with the artistic and exquisite photography of Mr. Clarence White of Newark, who is regarded by many critics as the leading photographer west of New York, if not the leading picture taker of the 'new school' in the United States.

"A photograph by him possesses a value not to be despised, and one of his disciples, or associates in his artistic work, who has taken up this branch of art, is Miss Emma Spencer of Newark, who has been remarkably successful.

"As Mr. White's photographs have an individuality all their own, so Miss Spencer's indubitably echo her personality, and although she has been much with Mr. White, she has not absorbed his methods to the derogation of her own beautiful and artistic pictures.

"Miss Spencer first became interested in photography in 1896, when she began taking snap shots under the direction of Mr. White. She had been more or less successful in water color and oil painting, and of course, soon developed a great fondness for this delightful work, which is always accurate in depicting what the eye admires.

"In 1897 she wrote an exhaustive article for the 'Brush and Pencil,' which attracted much attention, from photographers throughout the country, and about the same time her pictures began to appear in various exhibitions. She has exhibited at three Philadelphia salons, where, as every amateur knows, the very best only is accepted, and at the New York Camera club exhibit, her pictures received the most generous praise.

"Photographs of hers have also been sent to Turin, Italy, Hamburg and Weisbaden, and she is invited to send prints to the Hamburg jubilee exhibit this fall and will doubtless do so.

"At Turin, she received a silver medal, and at the recent Weisbaden exhibit it was given at bronze medal. The letter accompanying the announcement of the latter was most amusing, the writer saying that if it had not been for the fewness of her exhibit she would have been awarded a silver medal. She had sent only three prints, all of which were accepted.

"Miss Spencer has received very favorable notices in the art journals from the leading critics of Europe and America who have bestowed unstinted praise upon her work. Her literary ability is on a par with her artistic work, a rare combination and one which causes her friends to be extremely proud of her. It will be remembered that Miss Spencer had several specimens of her work at the exhibition which was held at the Art school last fall, when other far famed celebrities had examples of their work hung also, and with whose efforts hers compared most favorably."
